

' CAN Affiliate Agreement for 1991

The Cult Awareness Network is a national organization composed of affiliates across the United States. Each affiliate agrees to abide by the by-laws and the purpose of this organization:

[ *to educate the public about the harmful effects of mind control as used by destructive cults.

*to confine its concern to unethical or illegal practices, including coercive persuasion or mind control.

*to refrain from passing judgement on doctrines or beliefs.

*to support all legal efforts to restore individuals to their personal freedom of action and choice.

In addition, each affiliate agrees to:

*include Cult Awareness Network in its name, publications, interviews and presentations.

*provide financial support to the CAN National Office with annual affiliate dues of $100.00 and provide financial support for itself.

*hold regular meetings (a minimum of four per year) to offer educational programs in their community.

*have an affiliate membership of at least five individuals, four of whom are not related by family.

*send a Quarterly Report of affiliate activities to the National Office the last day of the month following each quarter.

*file a financial statement with the National Office at the end of the year.

*designate a representative to cast the affiliate vote for elections and other national business.

*maintain a telephone line or provide an answering machine to answer CAN calls, and provide a permanent address for receiving CAN mail.

*demonstrate an interest in the destructive cult issue as a whole and not only one particular type of cult activity or one cult.
