Dear Mr. Blamphin:

Patricia Ryan informed me that the video I sent you on cults was destroyed in your VCR! I am sending you a new copy, which hopefully will prove more reliable.

I understand that the Sally Jesse Raphael Show will offer a program on tentatively set for June 14. At this point, declined to appear on the show.

Also I heard today from Paul Auziak, assistant news editor of the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association that his article on is complete and will be in the JAVMA's next issue.

I've added your name to our monthly newsletter mail list, as we frequently write about in the newsletter.

Sincerely,

Cynthia S. Kissler
Executive Director
